SILVER SHIELD

Silver Shield Inc. has been offering professional, licensed, and experienced security guard services for corporations, federal agencies, and construction sites nationwide since 2014. They excel in tailoring specific security assignments for every possible security requirement. They also offer a customized staffing program to fit your organizational needs within your proposed budget.

SSS guards go through some of the most rigorous background inquiries and training programs in the country and have former police, federal law enforcement, or military experience.

The mission of sss-s Uniformed Protection Services was to create an entirely different sort of uniformed officer corps and to set a standard of excellence by which all security companies would be measured.
